

Patrick Sullivan, Director Corporate Financial Planning and Analysis (CFP&A), TIAA. Patrick has been with TIAA for twenty-two years. Patrick is currently responsible for managing TIAA's corporate expense planning and forecasting function and for managing aspects of TIAA's executive and board reporting function with a focus quarterly performance reporting. Patrick has been part of the CFP&A function for seven years rotating through a variety of financial planning and reporting roles. Prior to joining CFP&A, Patrick was part of TIAA's Treasury division for 15 years and was TIAA's Assistant Treasurer prior moving into his CFP&A role. Patrick received his BS in Accounting from Fordham University and his MBA in Financial Management from Pace University.